June McIvor is the chair of the Business Transactions practice area for Sinsheimer Juhnke Lebens & McIvor LLP, a respected and highly rated business law firm. She counsels businesses in formation, acquisition, operational, finance, banking and tax matters. Her experience at a top-tier law firm, as in-house counsel, and as an entrepreneur gives her unique expertise to assist clients in structuring their businesses and related transactions to reach their goals.

She is also spearheading the firm's work in sustainable entrepreneurship, representing companies such as solar installer REC Solar, alternative fuel car sharing company FunRide, nonprofits SLO Green Build and Central Coast Vineyard Team, as well as landowners negotiating with alternative energy companies looking to locate large-scale projects on their land. She will be a featured speaker at the Ecologistics' Green Marketing Seminar in June.

Prior to joining SJLM, McIvor was instrumental in the growth of grassroots and professional soccer in the U.S., serving as chief operating officer and general counsel for the FIFA Women's World Cup, general counsel of Major League Soccer and vice president of legal affairs for World Cup USA 1994.
